

We're All Moving!

Beyond the Book

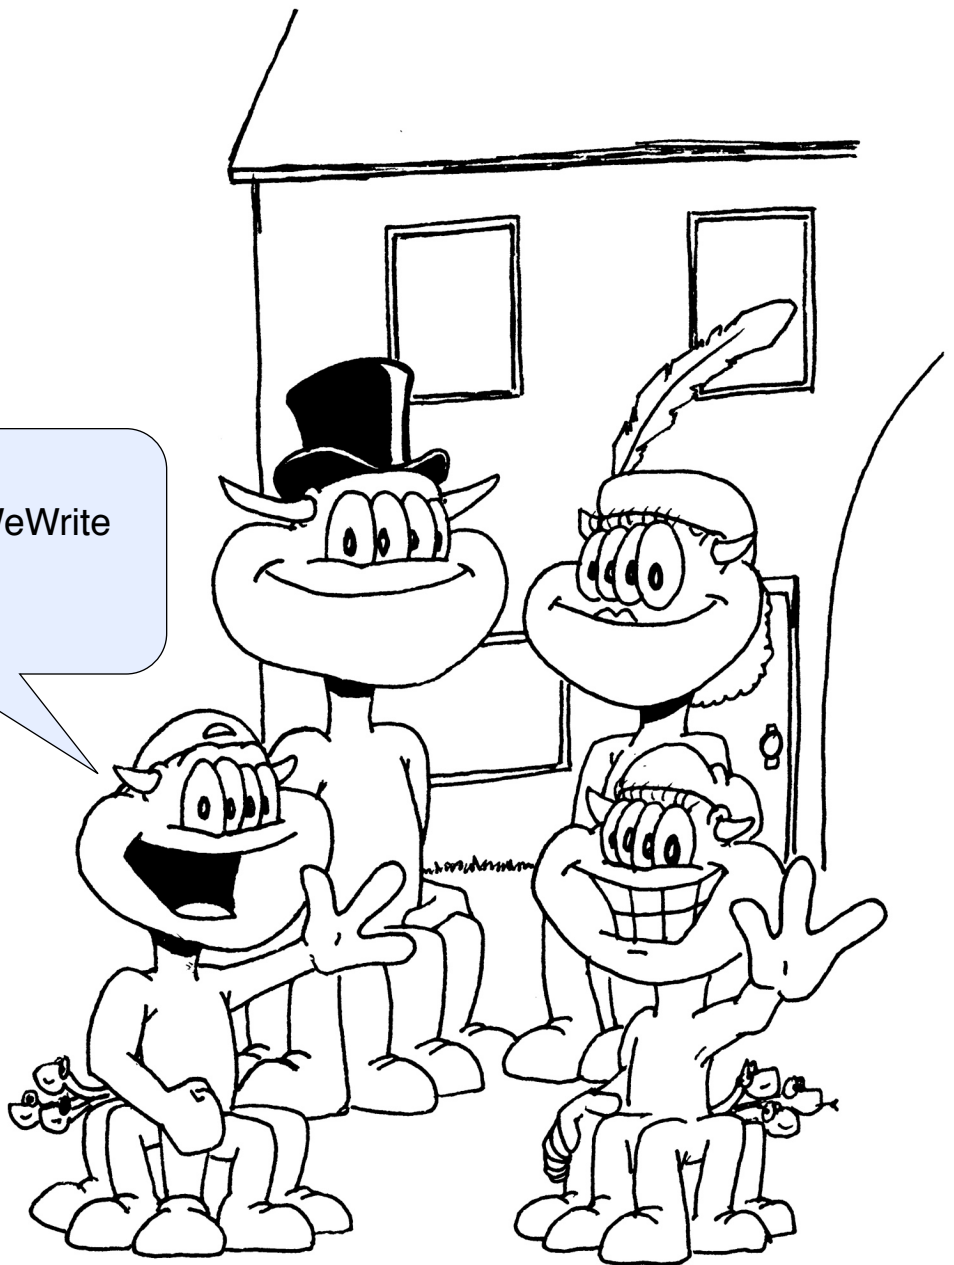

by WeWrite Kids

Beyond the Book

The following pages are fun activities derived from the book We're All Moving!

They are just a few examples of positive ways to use the concepts the authors presented in the book for addressing the concerns kids might have when moving.

Welcome to the world of WeWrite and the Pencil family!

Who is WeWrite?

We listen to kids.

We tap into their wisdom.

We are astounded by what they say.

Imagine a group of children brainstorming a story while a facilitator writes down their ideas. Ideas are popping and arms wave while the story evolves by vote.

Now imagine an illustrator off to the side of the group, furiously sketching a story that will be published for the whole world to read!

Scenarios just like this are the specialty of our unique publishing company, WeWrite LLC.

A mobile team travels to a site—classroom, church, or business—and helps a group create and publish their own book.

WeWrite is the perfect fundraiser or promotional vehicle for your civic, educational, or business message. Spread literacy with an awareness of your message as well. Through WeWrite's unique book-writing workshops, books are designed to:

- Enhance product, service, or concept awareness by kids and adults
- Reinvigorate your marketing, promotional or fundraising campaign
- Generate positive publicity for the kids and clients

This all-in-one concept combines businesses, kids, communities, artists, books, and fun into one dynamic package.

“Thank you for coloring our cover and helping us out very much because we will need it very much and we’re not very good at drawing yet because we’re only in the third grade.”

—Kyle Gehrs, age 8, co-author of Noot’s Toupee Day

Jupiteria used the laser-shrinking gun on their house. ZIP, ZAP, SCREE!
It shrank into a dollhouse. Jupiteria said, "Extraordinary!" trying out a big word.

Connect the dots.

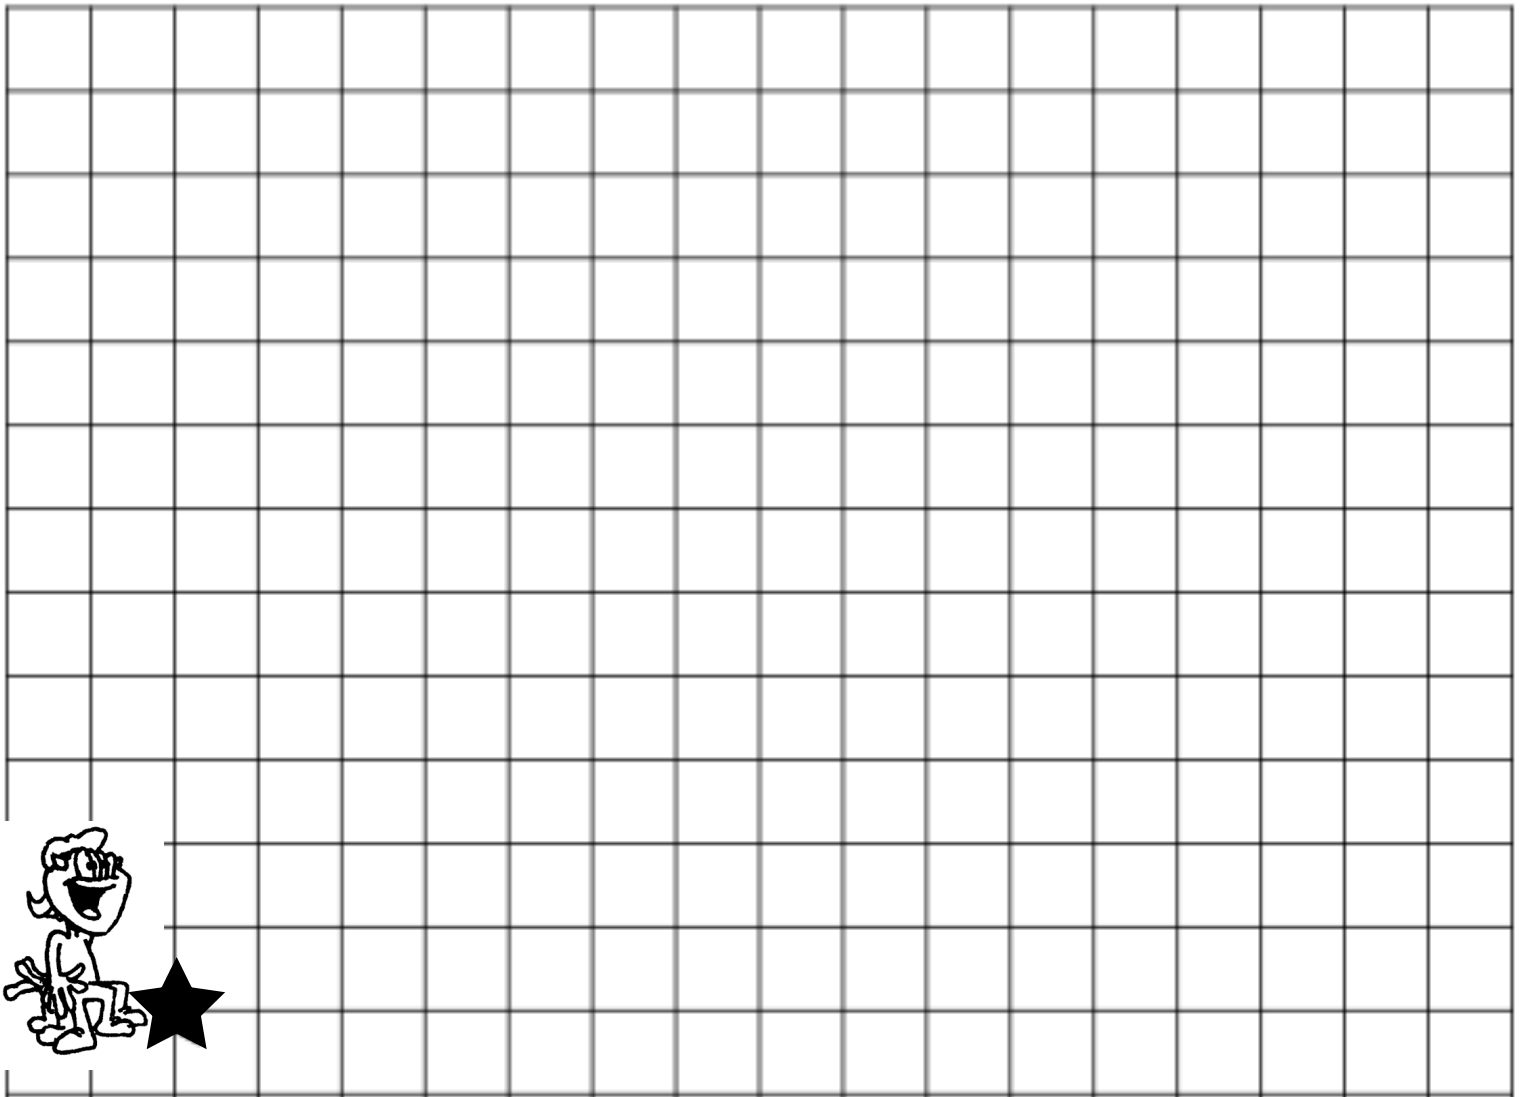

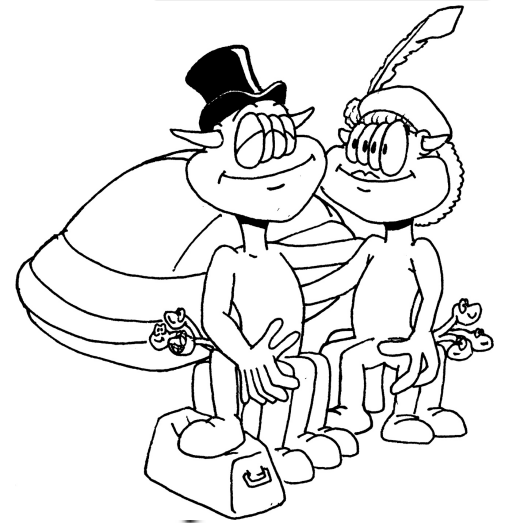

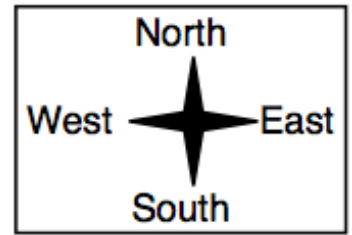

What are they doing?
