

Listen to these reviews from children who have been given a “sneak preview” of “All Dried Out”.

I liked the surprise of the talking foods. I really liked the chicken leg’s lines. For example, he said, ‘Bring it on Bonito!’ I laughed out loud. It was so funny when the chicken leg and the broccoli began wrestling.

- Angela, age 11, Ben Lomond, California

All the characters were good. I liked Clucky best because he thought he was big and strong but was only a chicken leg.

- Alex (Alexandra), age 11, Green Bay, Wisconsin

Clucky was a fighter even though he was just a chicken leg. That was too funny!

- Christopher, age 8 1/2, San Jose, California

I really liked how all the characters were described by how they spoke. I also liked the idea of sidebars describing things like water conservation.

- Rachel, age 11, San Jose, California

I thought the story was pretty good. I think that the nozzle for the hose being a hat was funny. The cup and the rose being friends was cute.

- Ethan, age 10, Santa Cruz, California

