

Sponsorship Opportunities

Help get the conversation started about aging.
Partner with us.

WeWrite is seeking financial sponsors to help publish a book about aging, written by kids. Once we have funding, we create the book. We make it available to sponsors and the general public. The book is read. And shared. And kept. The message spreads.

Your involvement in this project demonstrates your “good neighbor” commitment: to literacy, to your concern for our aging adults, and to working together to make a difference.

Marketing/publicity support includes website, press releases, social media, and forms of publicity as available, i.e. co-op marketing, event participation, testimonials, interviews, and public awareness opportunities. (Projects commence once sufficient funding is secured.)

Books will also be published in digital form on iTunes for $2.99.
